Despite the Pandemic Quincy's Opens Fourth Location in Potomac

Quincy's Potomac Bar & Grille Opens in Potomac Woods Plaza shopping center off Seven Locks Road.

Potomac, MD (January 14, 2021) – Quincy's, a local chain of restaurants in Montgomery County, is opening their fourth location on Monday, January 18 in the Potomac Woods Plaza shopping center off Seven Locks Road (1093 Seven Locks Road Potomac, MD 20854). Quincy's currently has locations in Damascus, Gaithersburg, and North Bethesda.

The space was formerly occupied by the Italian restaurant Amici Miei and has been completely renovated and updated to include an open storefront, complete with accordion, glass doors and large window, and 33 flat-screen televisions inside and 3 outside. There are 20 beers on tap and outlets with USB ports around the bar and at every booth.

Due to Montgomery County Covid restrictions, indoor dining is unavailable, however, there is a large patio with a heated tent to accommodate outdoor dining. Renovation started in spring of 2020. The build-out included a handmade granite-topped bar, dark wood floors, and incorporated a fresh palette of warm greys, exposed brick and stone that create a cozy, classic sports bar atmosphere.

The menu features similar American bar fare to the other locations (Quincy's is famous for their Chesapeake Wings and pizza), however there are some new additions, to include hand-cut sirloins, filets and ribeyes as well as Chicken Pot Pie, Fried Chicken, and Beef Stew. Menu items range from $6 to $37 and the restaurant's happy hour will run from 4pm.-7pm each weekday, with various weekend specials. Game nights and live music will convene once Covid-19 restrictions are lifted.

Marty Magill, Jeff Greenberg and their partners Chris McCasland, John Sahakian and Eric Rose hope to establish Quincy's Potomac as the neighborhood staple.
